

HOW THE OLYMPICS KILL THE POOR: ORGANIZING AGAINST CRIMINALIZATION FROM SKID ROW TO TOKYO

Monday, November 18 • 6:30-8:00 PM

Los Angeles Community Action Network

838 E. 6th Street, Los Angeles

Organizers from Japan and LA will speak about their work being done at the nexus of policing and the rights of the unhoused to highlight how the Olympics kill the poor, and what ordinary people are doing to contest these forces in cities around the world. Featured presentations by: Tokyo's Hangorin No Kai, Okotowalink, LA Tenants Union, NOlympics LA, and Street Watch LA.

  @challengeineq

For more info & to RSVP: bit.ly/olympics-kill

INSTITUTE ON
INEQUALITY AND DEMOCRACY
ORGANIZED 2016 • AT UCLA LUSKIN

Part of The Unhoused: Toward Housing Justice Knowledge Collaboration